Jacob and Laban, Part 2

When Laban was told that Jacob had fled ... he pursued him and caught up with him in the hill country of Gilead. ... Laban said to Jacob, ...

Write the first letter of each picture on the line above it.

... "Why did you run off secretly and deceive me? Why didn't you tell me, so I could send you away with joy and _____, with timbrels and harps?"

Laban continued, “You didn’t even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters goodbye. ... I have the power to harm you; but last night the God of your father said to me, ‘Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad.’

For each letter given, write the letter that comes before it.

Then Laban answered and said to Jacob, “Come now, let’s make a covenant, you and I, and let it serve as a witness between us.” So Jacob took a stone, and set it up as a pillar. And Jacob said to his relatives, ...

Trace the lines to finish the picture.

“Gather some stones.” So they took stones and piled them in a heap, and they ate there by the heap. ... Laban said, ‘This heap is a witness between you and me today. ... May the LORD keep watch between you and me when we are away from each other.’”
